

I am offended and outraged by the story of Pappas Telecasting Companies' 'donation' of $325,000 in airtime to Republican candidates without concern for fair provision of time for opposing political concerns. I cannot imagine that this is legal. Whatever remedies are available to your agency should be exercised at the earliest possible moment.

Thank you.
John Dagger